Search and Rescue (SAR) Advice

Overdue Trips

Each club overnight trip is allocated an emergency contact person for family and flatmates etc. The contact person holds the details of each group's intentions and a list of people on the trip. Family and flatmates etc. should first contact the emergency contact person if they feel concerned when a trip member or party is overdue. Trip leaders must call the contact person when an overdue party is out, and make a courtesy call after the trip when everything runs as planned. Experienced club members contribute to SAR by undertaking training and searching for missing and injured trampers.
