

Constitution of the Wellington Tramping and Mountaineering Club

1. NAME

The name of the Club shall be the “Wellington Tramping and Mountaineering Club Incorporated”.

2. INTERPRETATION

- a. It is assumed that:
  - i. Where a masculine is used, the feminine is included
  - ii. Where the singular is used, plural forms of the noun are also inferred
  - iii. Headings are a matter of reference and not part of the rules
- b. “Notice” means communication by post, electronic means (including email, and website posting), or advertisement in periodicals, or a combination of these methods.
- c. “Club” shall mean “Wellington Tramping and Mountaineering Club Incorporated”.
- d. “Committee” unless qualified to give a different meaning shall mean “General Committee” as defined in Section 15.
- e. “Member” unless qualified to give a different meaning, shall mean “member of the Club”.

3. OBJECTS

- a. To encourage and facilitate walking, climbing, mountaineering, and skiing, but always subject to (c) and (d).
- b. To encourage and facilitate such field interest as accord with object (a), such as botany, photography, etc, but always subject to (c) and (d).
- c. To preserve and protect the native fauna, except for such shooting of native game as may be permitted by the Government from time to time, such shooting to be subject to the rules of the club.
- d. To endeavour to achieve, maintain and to co-operate in the preservation of the Tararua mountain and forest areas as a natural, unspoiled reserve and to oppose further substantial development which appears to violate this object.
- e. To encourage and facilitate social intercourse between members.
- f. To build and maintain huts and resorts and to cut tracks; and to co-operate with other clubs and to invest funds, and to do other such acts as may reasonably accord with the above objects, but always subject to (c) and (d).

4. COLOURS

- a. The Club colours shall be light blue, dark blue and gold, with the light blue to predominate.

5. BADGE

- a. The Club badge shall be as illustrated.

6. MEMBERSHIP

- a. The club shall comprise Adult, Household, Veteran, Veteran Household, Junior, Friends of the Club and Life members.

- b. All persons declared to be members at a general meeting, Thursday, 11th December 1947, shall be deemed to be elected members of the Club.
- c. Persons interested in the objects of the Club shall be eligible for membership as the General Committee may determine, and may be elected by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a meeting of the Committee: provided that the Committee may require such tests of tramping or climbing interest as it may think fit; and provided that with respect to such applications the applicants meet such conditions as the Committee may from time to time determine.
- d. Members under the age of 18 years shall not be eligible to vote at General Meetings, nor to nomination for positions on the club's Committee, but shall in all other respects have full members' rights.
- e. Persons under the age of 18 shall only be eligible for junior membership, or can join as part of a household membership.
- f. Members may change from one type of membership to another by fulfilling such conditions as the Committee may from time to time determine.
- g. Membership shall be subject to the clauses relating to payment of subscriptions and may be qualified by the provision of Section 9.
- h. Notice shall be given or sent within 30 days advising each new member of his election.
- i. Persons who are 'Friends of the Club' shall receive Club Newsletters, Journals, and other publications and correspondence from the Club as the General Committee will determine from time to time; but they are not elected members and shall not receive any other rights or benefits of members.

7. LIFE MEMBERSHIP

- a. On a motion of which previous notice has been given to the Committee or on the Committee's recommendation, any person who has rendered special service to the Club or to the furtherance of its objects may be elected to life membership by two thirds of those present and voting at a general meeting of the Club. Life membership shall have full privileges, but shall be exempt from payment of the subscription.

8. SUBSCRIPTION

- a. The subscription shall be as may be determined by a General Committee from time to time.
- b. The due date for payment of the subscription shall be the date upon which the notice is sent advising him of his election (in the case of a new member). The date in other cases shall be the first day of the financial year.
- c. The Committee may at its discretion require advance payment of subscriptions with applications for membership, subject to such later refund or rebate as may be necessary due to delay or failure to elect.
- d. The Committee may remit all or part of the subscription in the case of hardship, in the case of outstanding service to the club, or in the case of absence from New Zealand for a period of more than six months. Members whose subscriptions are remitted for any of these reasons shall be deemed to be financial members, provided that such remission has effect only for the year in which it is made.

- e. The Committee may, at its discretion, grant a discount in respect of subscriptions that are paid before the first day of the financial year (i.e paid by 1st February) Where the subscription is paid in full but the discount could have been claimed the Club will not be bound to refund the discount.

9. FINANCIAL AND UNFINANCIAL MEMBERS

- a. New members whose subscriptions are paid and other members, whose subscriptions are not more than three months overdue, shall be deemed to be financial members; except as provided in Section 7 and Section 8(d) all other members shall be deemed unfinancial members.
- b. Unfinancial members may not vote at a General Meeting except by the consent of the majority of the financial members present.
- c. The Committee may, at its discretion, exercise any of the following powers in respect to unfinancial members; it may exclude such members from acting on the committee or any sub-committee; it may withhold notices of publications; it may require financial members to be given preference on trips; it may terminate the membership of unfinancial members.

10. RESIGNATION

- a. Any member may resign his membership by giving notice to the Membership Officer in writing to that effect.

11. EXPULSION

- a. The Committee may expel any member disobeying the rules of the Club, or seriously disregarding the Constitution, or guilty in its opinion of gross misconduct; provided that before expelling him the Committee shall give him an opportunity to appear before it and make such explanation as he may reasonably wish in his own defence.

12. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP IF UNFINANCIAL

- a. As provided in Section 9(c) the Committee may terminate the membership of any unfinancial member. It may do so without notice to the member.
